THE MANAGEMENT

ACCESS CARD IMPLEMENTATION AT RKC – PART 2 (REPEAT REMINDER)

Please find below some essential guidelines on the implementation of the access card:

1. Members, spouses and children from ages 15 to 25 (who utilise Club facilities) would require the card to gain entry to the Club and access certain facilities. Please note that submission of privileged member application form is still required before an access card is issued to members' children.
2. Members' children below the age of 15 will NOT require this access card until further notice.
3. The Club endeavours to fully implement the access cards effective 1st March, 2018 after which, the current membership card will no longer be valid and members who have yet to obtain the access card may face interruption when accessing Club facilities and outlets.
4. Colour coded access cards will be issued based on the current membership category.
5. Members currently on stop credit or defaulter's list will only be issued cards upon full settlement of accounts, subject to the approval of the General Committee.
6. Access to locations installed with access cards will be in accordance to the Bye-Laws of the specific location.
7. Please notify the Club within 24 hours if you have lost or experience any issues with your card upon issuance.
8. This card may not be used as an introductory card at affiliated Clubs.
9. The use of this card is only valid if the bearer's details are on this card.
10. All guests must be signed in on each occasion by the host member (if applicable).
