16.1 (i) The wives of members or any privileged persons shall be entitled to the free use of such portions of the Club's premises as the General Committee may from time to time prescribe.

(ii) The General Committee may in their discretion on the proposal of any member of the Club admit a lady who is not the wife of a member to the same privilege as the wife of a member, provided always that she has no husband residing in Malaysia who would be eligible for membership.

RULE -17

SPORTS AND DAY MEMBERS

17.1 The General Committee may invite any individual to become a Sports Member of the Club for the day or days of any sporting fixtures that the individual has been invited to participate upon such terms and conditions as the General Committee, at its sole discretion, may determine.

17.2 The General Committee may from time to time invite and allow individuals to become day members at such place or places where the Slot Machine Room facilities are available upon such terms and conditions as the General Committee may at its sole discretion, determine.

17.3 Such sports and day members shall have no voice in the affairs of the Club.

RULE -18

TERM MEMBERS

18.1 Subject to Rule 21.1 the General Committee may in its sole discretion accept applications for Term Membership from any person for a maximum period of six (6) months. Every application for a Term Membership shall be made in the manner prescribed by the General Committee for such membership and the application must be duly proposed by an Ordinary Member and seconded by another Ordinary Member of the Club.

18.2 The General Committee may extend the term of any such Term Member upon request in writing by such Term Member for such period as the General Committee may determine from time to time but such Term Membership shall not exceed a cumulative maximum of twelve (12) months.

18.3 The Proposer and Seconder of the Term Member shall be jointly and severally liable for all debts incurred by the Term Member.

RULE -19

ABSENT MEMBERS

19.1 An Ordinary Member ceasing to be ordinarily resident in Malaysia may by notice in writing to the General Manager of the Club become an Absent Member provided that such status as Absent Member shall only commence after the date on which the member has paid all monies owed to the Club.

19.2 An Absent Member shall be exempted from paying monthly subscription and except that such member shall pay the full monthly subscription applicable to the category of membership for the month in which the member becomes an Absent Member and for the month in which the member ceases to be an Absent Member unless the period in either case does not exceed seven (7) days in a calendar month.

19.3 An Absent Member who returns temporarily to Malaysia but is not again ordinarily resident in Malaysia may activate the membership on a temporary basis on application in writing to the General Manager and, if so required by the General Committee, on the payment of the appropriate deposit. An Absent Member so activating the membership shall pay the full monthly subscription applicable to the category of membership for each month, and any portion of a month exceeding seven (7) days, during which the membership remains activated. Membership shall be deemed to remain activated until the date notified in writing by that member to the General Manager, where the member has paid all moneys owed to the Club, whichever is the later.

19.4 No member resuming ordinary residence in Malaysia shall remain an Absent Member and any such member shall automatically cease to be an Absent Member on the date on which the member again becomes ordinarily resident in Malaysia.

19.5 A member who activates his membership pursuant to Rule 19.3 above on more than three (3) occasions during a one year period shall be deemed to have become ordinarily resident in Malaysia for the purpose of this Rule.

19.6 The General Committee shall have the power to determine, at its sole discretion, whether or not a member is for the time being ordinarily resident in Malaysia.

19.7 The General Committee may from time to time revise the list of Absent Members and shall remove the names of such members who have not reactivated their membership for a continuous period of three (3) years provided all attempts have been made to contact such member.

19.8 An Absent Member shall not have any voting rights so long as the membership remains inactivated.

RULE -20

RECIPROCAL MEMBERS

20.1 The General Committee may enter into reciprocal arrangement with any other Club or Association upon such terms and conditions as to the General Committee may appear advisable.

20.2 Any Member of any such Club or Association, while in Klang, shall be a Reciprocal Member of the Club and shall enjoy the amenities and facilities of the Club upon such terms and conditions agreed between the General Committee and such other Club or Association.

RULE -20A

PRIVILEGED MEMBERS

20A.1 Privileged persons shall have no voice or vote in the affairs or management of the Club, or be eligible to be a member of the General Committee.

20A.2 Privileged persons shall be bound by the Rules, Bye-Laws and other Regulations of the Club for the time being in force and unless otherwise stated, be subject to the same control as members.

20A.3 Privileged persons shall also be subject to be control of the General Committee and shall conform to the lawful requirements and directions of the Committee.

20A.4 No privileged person shall be entitled to propose or second any person for membership or visiting or service membership of the Club or to introduce a Guest to the Club, unless expressly provided by the Rules.

20A.5 No privileged person shall be entitled to play in any competition or tournament limited to members of the Club unless it is so provided in the conditions of such competition or tournament.

20A.6 The General Committee shall have power to withdraw from any privileged person individually or from any class or privileged persons as a class either for a definite period or indefinitely or permanently all or any of the privileges accorded to such privileged persons or class of privileged persons. Such power shall be exercisable whether or not the privileges arise in the right of a member.

20A.7 No person disqualified under Rule 26 may be admitted to the privileges, facilities or amenities of the Club during the respective periods provided in the said Rule, except with the previous consent of the General Committee.

RULE -21

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

21.1 Applications for membership to all categories (except Reciprocal Member) shall be made in writing on such forms as may be prescribed by the General Committee generally for all applications or particularly for any category of membership and all application shall be proposed and seconded. The Proposer and Secorder respectively shall be an Ordinary Member of the Club with a standing of more than three (3) years and a member in benefit of the Club at the time the proposing or seconding is done Provided Always that no Proposer or Secorder shall propose or second in any one calendar year more than two persons for membership as an Ordinary Member or as Corporate Member.

21.2 The Proposer and Seconder shall be personally acquainted with the applicant for membership and shall vouch for the applicant's fitness for membership in the application form.

RULE-22

OBJECTIONS TO ADMISSION OF NEW MEMBER

22.1 The Club shall display the particulars of all candidates applying for membership in any category in a manner that would allow members of the Club access thereto for a period of not less than one (1) month. In the case of a Term Member, the period during which the candidate's name with such particulars as required by the General Committee need only be posted for two (2) weeks.

22.2 Any member who objects to the admission of a candidate applying for membership may within the said period of one (1) month or in the case of an applicant for Term Membership within the said period of two (2) weeks of such display file a written notice of objection with the Club specifying the reasons for the objections.

22.3 Only members in benefit and who are entitled to vote in general meetings shall have the right to file a notice of objection referred to above.

22.4 The General Committee shall cause an inquiry into the objection raised.

22.5 The General Committee after having given due consideration to the reasons for the objection shall deliberate and decide on the objection. The General Committee's decision on the objection shall be at its absolute discretion and shall be final.

RULE-23

ACCEPTANCE OF APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

23.1 The General Committee shall have the authority to accept or reject any applications for membership at its absolute discretion without being obliged to give any reason whatsoever. Each candidate and his Proposer and Secunder shall be informed in writing as soon as practicable whether the application for membership has been accepted or rejected by the General Committee.

23.2 The candidate whose application who has been accepted shall pay the entrance fee and all other dues and deposits as shall be advised by the Secretary or any other persons nominated by the General Committee of the Club within such time period as may be allowed by the General Committee.

23.3 If a candidate whose application has been accepted fails to pay his entrance fee or any installment thereof as permitted by the General Committee within thirty (30) days of the date when they shall fall due, the General Committee shall unless satisfied there is reasonable cause for the failure, withdraw the offer made to the candidate to become a member.

23.4 The candidate whose application has been accepted shall be entitled to all the privileges of membership except those of attending and voting at meetings and introducing guests to the Club until the candidate is admitted as a Member pursuant to Rule 24. The General Committee may in its sole discretion however withdraw the privileges of the Club from any such candidate without assigning any reason before the member is elected.

23.5 No application for membership shall be accepted unless the candidate has settled all prior debts and other liabilities to the Club, if any, incurred by the candidate in any capacity prior to the application or such debt or liability shall have been guaranteed to the satisfaction of the General Committee.

RULE-24MEMBER ELECTED

24.1 The candidate whose application has been accepted pursuant to Rule 23 above shall be deemed to be admitted as a Member of the Club with full privileges as are due to a member of that category of membership to which he has been admitted only after such candidate has met the members of the General Committee for a formal introduction at such time to be fixed by the General Committee at their discretion.

RULE-25RESIGNATION FROM MEMBERSHIP

25.1 Any member may resign as a member by giving the Club notice in writing to that effect but shall continue to be liable for subscription or other debts due and unpaid at the date of the resignation.

RULE-26CESSATION OF MEMBERSHIP

26.1 All privileges and benefits enjoyed by a Member or a Corporate Nominee,

- (i) who has resigned or died; or
- (ii) who is an undischarged bankrupt prior to or after election as a member; or
- (iii) who makes a composition or arrangement with his creditors under the provisions of any Ordinance or Act; or
- (iv) who is a defaulter or has been expelled from the Club; or

(v) who has been convicted in a Court of Law of competent jurisdiction at any time prior to or after election as a member of any offence which in the opinion of the General Committee would if permitted to remain as a member place the Club in disrepute or embarrass the Club in any way; or

(vi) who has become an enemy alien, and in the case of a Corporate Member, the Corporate Member is wound up by an Order of Court, shall cease forthwith of being a member save as otherwise expressly provided or reserved in these Rules.

26.2 Any member who ceases to be a member pursuant to any of these Rules shall forfeit all rights to the Club, its property and its funds, but the member and or his estate shall continue to be liable for any liabilities and obligations to the Club undertaken or incurred while he was a member, whether liquidated or continuing and whether in respect of that member or some other person.

26.3 No person who has ceased to be a member as aforesaid except an expelled member pursuant to Rule 36.4 (e) shall be eligible to apply again for admission to the Club as a member until two (2) years shall have elapsed from the effective date of such cessation.

33.3 The Annual General Meeting of the Club shall be held within 6 months after the close of financial year or so soon thereafter as possible for the following purposes :-

- (i) To receive and pass the Audited Accounts for the year ended 31st December of the preceding year, and to receive the Annual Report of the General Committee on the affairs of the Club;
- (ii) To receive and consider an estimate of revenue and expenditure for the following financial year.
- (iii) To elect the President, Vice-President and seven members of the General Committee, if the two (2) year term of office of the General Committee expires at the Annual General Meeting.
- (iv) To elect Auditors for the current year and to fix their remuneration as provided by Rule 7.3.
- (v) Subject to Rule 27.2.1 to consider whether monthly subscription payable by members for the ensuing two years shall be increased.
- (vi) To transact any other business of which due notice in accordance with Rule 33.7 shall have been given.

33.4 A voting member who is subject to action taken under Rule 29.3 shall not be entitled to attend or participate at any General Meeting.

33.5(i) The General Committee may convene an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Club whenever the General Committee deems it expedient and shall do so upon receipt of a written requisition signed by not less than ten percent (10%) voting members of the Club stating the reason for convening such meeting.

(ii) Ten percent (10%) required will be based on the Club's membership registration list of qualified voting members as at first January where the Extraordinary General Meeting is requested.

(iii) If within twenty one (21) days of receipt of such requisition the General Committee does not proceed to cause an Extraordinary General Meeting to be convened, the requisitionists or any eighty (80) members of the Club may themselves convene a meeting.

33.6(i) Notice of every General Meeting, specifying the business to be dealt with, shall, not less than twenty (21) days before the date of the Meeting, be despatched by post and email to all members of the Club residing in Malaysia at their last known address and any form of acceptable electronic email address in Malaysia and shall be further posted in a prominent place or places in the Club premises.

(ii) In the case of the Annual General Meeting a copy of the Audited Statement of Account of the preceding year together with the Annual Report of the General Committee shall accompany such notice to be forwarded to Members as hereinbefore provided.

33.7(i) No motion or resolution shall be brought forward at any Annual General Meeting unless notice of the motion or resolution has been given in writing to the General Manager or Club Manager or Secretary of the Club not less than ten (10) clear days before the date of the Meeting provided always that at such General Meetings any member may still be allowed to address the Meeting on any matter concerning the Club.

(ii) No business shall be transacted or any motion or any resolution discussed or voted upon at an Extraordinary General Meeting except on such specific business, motion or resolution set out in the Notice convening that Extraordinary General Meeting.

33.8 The President shall be the Chairman at all General Meetings or, in his absence, the Vice-President. If at any meeting the President or Vice-President is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting or is unwilling to act as Chairman, the members present shall choose one amongst them to be the Chairman for that Meeting.

33.9(i) At every General Meeting ten percent (10%) voting members personally present shall form a quorum.

(ii) Ten percent (10%) required will be based on the Club's membership registration list of qualified voting members as at first day of the month.

(iii) No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to do business.

(iv) If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened by the requisition of members, shall be dissolved. In all other cases it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the following week at the same time and place and if, at the adjourned meeting, a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the members present shall be a quorum.

33.10 The Chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present, and shall, if so directed by the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for more than fourteen days, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

33.11(i) Save and except for amendments to these Rules pursuant to Rule 41 and any resolution to set aside the decision of the General Committee on a disciplinary matter pursuant to Rule 36 below, all questions at General Meetings, unless agreed unanimously, shall be decided by a majority of the Members present.

(ii) Every eligible member present in person shall be entitled to one vote and in the case of an equality of vote the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

(iii) A declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority or lost, and entry to that effect in the book of the proceedings of the Club shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against that resolution.

RULE -34

34.1 At the biennial Annual General Meeting where an election to the General Committee is to take place, an Elections Committee comprising five (5) members of the Club, one of whom shall be designated as the Chairman of the Elections Committee shall be appointed by the members present at the Annual General Meeting.

34.2 All members who are standing for election including the proposer and seconder of any candidate shall not be eligible to be nominated as the Elections Committee.

34.3 General Committee shall have the following powers :-

(i) fix deadlines for nominations and for any withdrawal from contesting any positions

(ii) to stipulate and prepare the format and layout of the nomination form and the ballot papers and adopt such security features as may be appropriate

(iii) to appoint such additional persons from amongst the members or staff of the Club to assist the Elections Committee in carrying out their duties

(iv) to verify and certify the list of eligible voters

(v) generally do all such things and acts necessary and incidental to maintain the integrity of the election process overall.

34.4 All issues that may arise in the course of or related to the elections to the General Committee shall be decided upon by the Elections Committee and such decision shall be final and binding on all members.

34.5 The Chairman of the Elections Committee shall at the biennial Annual General Meeting where an election to the General Committee takes place declare the names of the successful candidates for the respective positions in the General Committee and such declaration shall be conclusive and binding on all members.

34.6 In the event of any equality of votes or any election position, the Chairman shall call for a second ballot. This will be conducted in accordance to Rule 34.

RULE -35

CONDUCT OF MEMBERS AND DISCIPLINE

35.1 If the conduct of a member whether in or out of the premises of the Club is found to be unbecoming of a member of the Club or is injurious to the interest of the Club or where the conduct renders such member unfit to associate with members of the Club or if the member is in breach of any of these Rules and/or the Bye-laws of the Club or has caused damage to the property of the Club or physical injury to any other member, guest or employee of the Club, then the member shall be subjected to disciplinary proceedings as provided for under the Rules.

35.2 The President or in his absence, the Vice-President, shall have the authority at all times to suspend a member pending investigation of a complaint against him by the Investigation Committee, if in the opinion of the President or in his absence, the Vice-President, the conduct of the member against whom the complaint is made is of such a serious nature that it would not be in the best interest of the Club for the member to be present in the Club whilst the complaint against him is being investigated.

35.3 For the purpose of disciplinary proceedings there shall be established:

- (i) an Investigation Committee comprising not more than seven (7) members, appointed by the General Committee for a term of two (2) years coinciding with the term of office of the General Committee,
- (ii) a Disciplinary Panel comprising not more than twelve (12) members appointed by the General Committee for a term of two (2) years coinciding with the term of office of the General Committee,

(iii) no member of the Investigation Committee shall be appointed to the Disciplinary Panel and vice versa and the two entities shall operate independently and exclusively of each other.

35.4 The Chairman of the Investigation Committee shall be the member of the General Committee.

RULE - 36

DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS

36.1 Any complaint concerning the conduct of any member shall be in writing and shall in the first place be made by another member, the General Manager of the Club or an employee of the Club to the Chairman of the Investigation Committee provided all such complaints are made not later than fourteen (14) days of the occurrence of such conduct complained of, failing which the Investigation Committee is not obliged to act on the said complaint.

36.2 Where a written complaint is received pursuant to Rule 36.1, the Investigation Committee shall meet and may, if it considers that:-

(i) no cause exists which justifies any disciplinary action, advise the complainant accordingly, or

(ii) the complaint is of a minor nature, summarily deal with the complaint and in so doing may either counsel the member concerned as to his future conduct or censure or impose a fine in a sum not exceeding RM100.00 upon such member,

(iii) make good any repair cost incurred by the Club where the complaint is that of damage to Clubs property or to the property of any member or guest of the Club, and

(iv) failing which the Club has the right to utilize the deposit of the member concerned.

36.3 If the Investigation Committee concludes that there are sufficient grounds to merit further investigation into the complaint received, the Chairman of the Investigation Committee shall forthwith constitute a Disciplinary Committee comprising of not less than three (3) but not more than five (5) members from amongst the members of the Disciplinary Panel. The Chairman of the Investigation Committee shall be the member of the General Committee.

36.4 After hearing the complainant and the member against whom the disciplinary proceedings have been commenced and/or such witnesses as may be produced the Disciplinary Committee shall record its findings and therefrom, the Disciplinary Committee shall proceed to institute any one or more of the following measure or punishment against that member as the Disciplinary Committee deems fit:-

- a) acquit the member of the charge if he is found to be innocent of the charge or where it is not proven to the satisfaction of the Disciplinary Committee;
- b) issue a censure;
- c) impose a fine not exceeding RM1,000.00 or such sums as approved by the General Committee from time to time.
- d) suspend that member from the privileges of the Club for a period not exceeding three (3) years;
- e) expel the member from the Club

36.5 If the member is aggrieved by the findings or order made against him or her by the Disciplinary Committee then he shall have the right to appeal to the General Committee within fourteen (14) days of receipt of notification of the decision or order of the Disciplinary Committee. The General Committee may confirm or vary the findings of the Disciplinary Committee or make any other order as it deems fit. The Chairman of the Investigation Committee shall not participate in the deliberations on the matter by the General Committee.

36.6 In no case, no decision made under Rule 36.4 shall take more than 90 days from the date the complaint is lodged under Rule 36.2.

RULE -37

RESERVATION OF CLUB PREMISES

37.1 The General Committee may at any time and from time to time by notice reserve any part or parts of the Club premises and grounds for any purpose whatsoever for such period or periods and subject to such provisions and limitations as to entry thereon whether by Members or any other person or class of persons and whether upon terms of payment or otherwise as the General Committee may think fit.

37.2 In particular and without derogation to the generality of the power aforesaid, the same may be exercised in connection with competition, tournaments, exhibition, matches, fetes, galas, celebrations, entertainments and functions of all kinds and shall include the loan or hire of the Club's premises or any part thereof.

37.3 The General Committee may in like manner at any time and from time to time close the whole or any part or parts of the Club premises and grounds for the purpose of repair, renewal or conservation thereof or for the observance of any solemnity or celebration or as a mark of respect or to meet the requirements of any particular occasion as the General Committee may think fit.

37.4 Notice of action under this Rule shall as far as possible be given in advance and shall be posted in prominent places in the Club.

CHILDREN

38.1 The word "Child" and its cognate expressions shall mean a person of either sex below the age of eighteen (18) years of age, who is a member of the family of any member of the Club or of any privileged person.

38.2 The General Committee may if they deem necessary deny or restrict access to any area or areas within the Club premises to a Child.

38.3 No Child shall in any circumstances give any order to any staff or employee of the Club.

38.4 Upon receipt of any complaint with respect to the conduct of any Child at the Club, the General Committee may at its absolute discretion withdraw all facilities as regards such Child and in urgent cases any member of the General Committee may temporarily withdraw such facilities pending the decision of the General Committee.

RULE -39

GUESTS

39.1 Members, spouses of members as set out in Rule 8.1 except for Sports Members / Invited Members, shall have the privilege of introducing Guests in good standing in the society to the Club subject to such Bye-Laws made by the General Committee and in force for that purpose and to Rules 39.2 and 39.3 hereunder.

39.2 The Club shall not be liable for any losses, damages, injuries or claims of whatsoever nature or howsoever arising that may be suffered by the Guest of a Member whilst in the premises of the Club.

39.3 The General Committee may at their absolute discretion without being obliged to give any reason, forbid the entry of any particular individual as a guest of a member into the Club.

RULE -40

MISCELLANEOUS

40.1 No member or person accorded the privileges of the Club under these Rules shall give directly any money, present or gratuity to any servant or employee of the Club under any circumstances whatsoever.

40.2 (i) Complaints or suggestions may be entered by Members only in the book provided for that purpose or to the General Manager of the Club.

(ii) No member or person accorded the privileges of the Club shall reprimand any servant or employee of the Club. In the event of any fault being found, a complaint may be made in writing to the General Manager of the Club or entered in the complaint book by a member or by such person.

40.3 If any member or person accorded the privileges of the Club break or cause damage or injury to the property of the Club he shall pay to the Club the cost of making good the damage. The amount of such damage shall be assessed by the General Committee, whose decision shall be final.

40.4 No animals shall be allowed to be within the precincts of the Club. Any member, whose animal enters the Club premises, shall be subject to such disciplinary action in accordance to the Rule 36.

40.5 No weapons may be brought into the Club unless mandated by law.

40.6 Books, periodicals, newspapers or other Club property shall on no account be removed from the Club, except in accordance with the Bye-Laws made for that purpose.

40.7 (i) The Club shall not be liable in respect of the death or personal injury suffered by any member or person accorded privileges of the Club arising in any way out of his membership of the Club or by his presence in the Club premises or through his use or enjoyment of the Club, its amenities, privileges or facilities howsoever arising.

(ii) The Club shall not be liable for the loss of or damage to any property whatsoever brought upon the Club premises by a member or person accorded privileges of the Club irrespective of whether such property was entrusted to a servant or employee of the Club.

40.8 (i) A copy of these Rules and all Bye-Laws shall be available for inspection by members and such persons accorded privileges of the Club in the office of the Club or at such place or places as the General Committee shall decide.

(ii) Every member of the Club and every person accorded privileges of the Club shall be bound by these Rules and the Bye-Laws of the Club for the time being in force and shall be deemed to have full notice thereof whether such person shall or shall not have obtained a copy thereof.

RULE -41

AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTIONAL RULES

41.1 These Rules or any part thereof may be rescinded, added to, and amended from time to time by resolution of the Club in General Meeting.

41.2 Any resolution to rescind, add to or amend the Rule shall follow the procedures of the Rule 33.7 (i) and (ii) and require two thirds (2/3) majority of members present and voting at the General Meeting to be passed and accepted as resolution of the Club.

41.3 Notice of all valid alterations and amendments to these Rules as passed at the General Meeting shall be given within twenty one (21) days to the Registrar of Societies and such alterations and amendments will only come into effect after approval for the same has been received from the said Registrar of Societies.

RULE -42

BYE - LAWS

42.1 The General Committee may make such Bye-Laws as it may think fit :-

- (i) to prescribe the policies and procedure of the General Committee or of any Sub-Committee;
- (ii) for the admission of guests of Members to the Club;
- (iii) for the election of candidates for membership;
- (iv) for the conduct and management of games, sports and pastimes promoted by the Club and the use of designated areas or rooms for the same;
