DO NOT FEED THE CATS

Dear Members,

Kindly refrain from feeding stray cats within the Club premises. Food left behind attracts pests, creates hygiene issues, and causes inconvenience to other members.

We appreciate your kind cooperation in helping us maintain a clean and pleasant environment for everyone.

RKC TENNIS ACHIEVEMENT GIRLS UNDER 18 TENNIS SINGLES

Ms. Selena Seh Xin Leng, daughter of our Club member Mr. Seh and Mdm. Ivy, S215, recently won the girls under 18 tennis singles championship MSSD Klang which was held in UiTM Shah Alam and thereafter represented Klang District in the tennis championship MSS Selangor. Klang district managed to come in 4th placing out of 10 districts.

There is no better timing than this year for RKC to recognise and appreciate someone's achievements like Selena to be considered for an award or a mentioned in conjunction with RKC's 125 Years Anniversary Celebration. This will certainly motivate her to get a greater success to keep her momentum going

I have been coaching tennis in RKC since 2008 and as her coach I'm delighted on her remarkable achievements. Her dedication and hard work have truly paid off. She is a true sports girl who also excel in table tennis and pickleball.

RKC SQUASH JUNIOR DEVELOPMENT

I would like to inform you that two of our Club's junior players recently represented Malaysia at the Asian Junior Championships tournament held in China.

- * Julius Tan (BU15) achieved an impressive 3rd Placing in his category.
- * Nuie Chew (GU13) finished in 9th Placing in her category.

This is a proud achievement for both the players and our Club, as they competed at an international level representing the country.
