RKC TURNS A CHAPTER, MARKS A MILESTONE

THE Royal Klang Club turns 125 this year, heralding its grand and momentous entry into an exclusive group of prestigious Clubs in Malaysia that have withstood the passage of time.

It is a quasiquicentennial, as any logophile will tell you, and RKC's 125th Anniversary marks 2026 as a very special year for a truly remarkable Club. So very special indeed that we have dedicated this edition of the biennial RKC magazine as a special commemorative issue to mark the occasion of RKC turning 125.

The front cover features a montage of artworks from prize-winning entries of our talented artists at the Club. This was in conjunction with the recent RKC Art Competition with the theme of 'RKC Turning 125'.

As RKC president Kenny Lee aptly sums it up, RKC is a prestigious Club that strives to uphold its exalted position as a distinguished landmark and a renowned institution of excellence that embodies the finest tenets of the clubbing spirit. The Club's patron, His Royal Highness the Sultan of Selangor, has graciously consented to officially launch the celebration in August. That kicks off the bash on a regal note.

Long synonymous with sporting excellence, the RKC 125th Anniversary Organising Committee has already set the ball rolling with a host of activities and games featuring RKC's champions against teams from selected affiliated Clubs from the peninsula.

On the cards are a gala dinner and other exciting activities and programmes. Organising committee chairman K. Thavanesan spills the beans on what is on the drawing board in a special interview.

The RKC Publications team, which saw a seamless transition from its previous GC chairman S. Kulaseharan to Billy Ng, has focused on the usual sporting events at the Club. Our sports writer, Anil Menon, highlights the picketball craze sweeping RKC.

Special columnist Ms Priya Gopi has contributed an article on "Art As Therapy" which no doubt will prove a scintillating read. Our writer Rajeswari Kandiah gives an inkling of what RKC members can expect once the refurbishment to the toilets and shower facilities are completed next year.

All these articles and more have been compiled to showcase the vibrant spirit of fellowship and solidarity that pervades this Club.

As I pass the baton to my successor, I wish to highlight another significant achievement of RKC. We remain one of the few Clubs in the country that produces a biennial magazine, both in print and electronic format. That is truly something to be proud of.

On that note I bid all members a very happy 125th anniversary.
Cheers!

CELEBRATING RKC'S LEGACY OF DISTINCTION

INTERVIEW WITH RKC PRESIDENT KENNY LEE/BY S. JAYAKRISHNAN

ROYAL Klang Club President Kenny Lee reflects on the Club's upcoming 125th Anniversary celebrations, its significance and the rich legacy of Klang's most prestigious Club in an interview with our editor, S. Jayakrishnan.

THE Royal Klang Club marks another momentous and glorious chapter in the annals of its distinguished history as it celebrates its 125th Anniversary this year.

It is a truly significant and memorable occasion worthy of acknowledgment by its esteemed members. More than a familiar heritage landmark, RKC is no doubt an institution that has long held regal status and a reputation that transcends borders.

Officially established in 1901 as Klang Club, the Club – which shares historical links with the Selangor palace – has long since attained royal status, befitting RKC's prestigious and acclaimed status as Selangor's premier social and recreational Club.

RKC has come a long way since its early days when it was exclusively an enclave for British colonial era planters, the elite in Klang society and counted among its esteemed members during its inception the Sultan of Selangor and the then British Resident.

RKC president Kenny Lee, recently re-elected to a second term, says prestige and a distinguished status have long been distinctive hallmarks of the Club.

"We strive to preserve and uphold the prestigious legacy of RKC which every member of this Club should be proud of. It is by no means an ordinary Club but a revered institution and historic landmark whose links are closely intertwined with the royal city of Klang and the community," he says.

Kenny, who joined the Club in 1990, says it is incumbent on all members to uphold the proud ideals and traditions of the Club as it turns a pivotal chapter in its long and chequered history.

The RKC president says that His Royal Highness the Sultan of Selangor, the Club's Patron, has graciously accepted the Club's invitation to attend a dinner function to be held at the Club to mark the 125th Anniversary Celebration.

"We picked an appropriately themed tagline – Embracing A New Horizon – for the 125th Anniversary Celebration which signifies and exemplifies the Club's resilience and steadfastness. Over the passage of time, the Club has evolved, transformed and adapted to the changes and progress and we aim to move forward in keeping with the times."

He adds that the Club's Organising Committee for the 125th Anniversary Celebration has been working diligently to ensure a fun-filled and memorable occasion for members and their families as well as guests.

The organising committee, comprising a handful of those who helped to organise RKC's Centenary bash 25 years ago, was picked based on their experience and expertise in managing the event.

The Club hopes to entice more members to join the pro-tem organising committee to share their expertise and offer their service to ensure a successful and memorable event.

Kenny says as a renowned sports and recreational Club that has produced former Olympians and regional, national and state-level champions in hockey, cricket, squash, swimming, table tennis and athletics, one of the highlights of the programme will be a series of Inter-Club games with six affiliated Clubs in the peninsula.

The selected games, which include hockey, football, badminton, table tennis, pickleball, darts and pool, strive to boost the spirit of fellowship, camaraderie and sporting spirit. Also included among the activities is a charity golf championship.

RKC's past presidents have been extended a special invitation to partake of the bash as a mark of respect and recognition of their selfless contributions to the Club. Several of them had even offered to assist the Club in organising the 125th Anniversary Celebrations as it marks a pivotal chapter in its history.

Kenny adds that the Club wishes to engage all members of RKC in the celebrations. Hence a Family Day and Fun Walk will be held to create a buzz among the Club's members, families and guests and ensure everyone joins in the revelry.

The highlight of the RKC 125th Anniversary Celebration will be a gala dinner to be held on Oct 10, 2026 with a special guest of honour to grace the occasion.

Recognising RKC's rich creative talent, an art competition with the theme of the 125th Anniversary was held with encouraging response from members and their children. Winners were accorded prizes in the various categories and selected entries will be featured for merchandising in the form of T-shirts, caps and mugs to promote the celebrations.

As in the past, winning entries will be displayed at the Club's facilities.

The RKC president says members' response to the 125th Anniversary Celebration has been encouraging and so too the corporate sponsors approached to help ensure costs are kept within the budget.

"The General Committee aims to celebrate the occasion on a moderate but memorable scale."

Tentatively, the 125th Anniversary Organising Committee plans to launch a time capsule to commemorate the milestone. Selected items pertaining to the Club's history will be preserved in the time capsule with a plaque displayed to highlight the historic event.

Switching the topic to the everyday management of the Club, Kenny who has been in the "hot seat" for a second term says the past few years have been challenging.

The Club president says his GC has inherited "legacy issues" pertaining to the Club's ageing infrastructure particularly issues like roof leakage, termite infestation at the squash courts, toilet refurbishment and maintenance of the hot and cold contrast pools.

"We have addressed some of these issues as I promised when I took charge like the roof leakage, repairs to the squash courts and upgrading the piping system to the contrast pools.

"As for the toilet refurbishment project, which is a major job, we are in the midst of getting planning approval from the authorities, before we embark on it. We hope to see it completed soon."

To manage costs over the long run, solar panels have been installed on the roof of the Multi-Purpose Hall and LED lighting fitted wherever possible.

RKC has also shown its caring side by taking care of its staff, including those assigned to F&B, by ensuring their wages and benefits are reasonable and according priority to hiring local rather than foreign workers.

Staff also get two days off in conjunction with Workers Day where they are feted to show recognition of their services as well as being offered a bonus that is linked to their performance.

Addressing some concerns raised by members on the escalating costs of projects, Kenny shares that the GC should be given some leeway in carrying out its role.

"There are some infrastructure projects that cannot be deferred as it may incur more costs the longer it is delayed or put off. As long as the GC sticks to its framework and parameters, there is no cause for any undue concern. Otherwise it only constrains us in undertaking urgent remedial measures."

As we usher in our 125th Anniversary, we must all strive to ensure our Club remains steadfast in our vision and stays on a firm financial footing, ready to embrace opportunities and navigate the challenges that lay ahead.

On the status of the Club's finances, Kenny, who has an extensive corporate background in banking and finance, is adamant that the Club should not have the misconception that it is flushed with funds simply because of its RM7 million in fixed deposit holdings.

Kenny adds that any call or suggestion to dip into its FD savings to defray costs of major projects and undertakings at RKC would be unwise and even perilous to its financial status in the long run.

"This is something all RKC members must understand and be cognisant of. The GC under my watch takes prudent management of the Club's finances very seriously.

As we usher in our 125th Anniversary, we must all strive to ensure our Club remains steadfast in our vision and stays on a firm financial footing, ready to embrace opportunities and navigate the challenges that lay ahead.

"With that I wish everyone at the Club a very happy 125th Anniversary and may we all continue to enjoy more great times at RKC."

EDITORIAL BOARD 2025

EDITORIAL BOARD CHAIRMAN

Since being elected as a General Committee member for the 2025-2027 term and being entrusted with the Publications portfolio, it is my pleasure to pen a few words in this edition of our biennial RKC magazine.

First of all I would like to thank my predecessor S. Kulaseharan, who has helped pass the baton in the smooth transition process of managing this portfolio.

Kula has led a capable Publications Sub-Committee team that has endeavoured to rise to the challenge of producing an informative and interesting magazine that has taken on added significance as the Club commemorates its 125th Anniversary this year.

I must specifically thank the editor, S. Jayakrishnan, for his expertise and stewardship and committee member M. Anil Menon as well as our Club secretary Ms M. Santhy for their diligence and perseverance in contributing their time and expertise to producing this special edition of the RKC magazine that commemorates a major milestone of the Club in 2026.

Their efforts have helped me immensely in seamlessly assuming the role as chairman of the Publications portfolio and the many tasks involved.

As a veteran RKC member, the Club is close to my heart and like many other members, particularly those from the sports fraternity, I am indebted to this esteemed institution for providing its members with top class facilities in sports and recreational aspects as well as a popular rendezvous for solidarity, fellowship and get togethers and instilling a sense of camaraderie among us all.

The Publications Sub-Committee has strived to capture the essence of that spirit in our biennial magazine.

Thank you.

WALTER SIM's update on RKC's INFRASTRUCTURE PROJECT

By: Ms Rajeswari Kandiah

MANY clubs prioritise comfortable and well-equipped changing rooms and washrooms to enhance the overall member experience.

These facilities often include amenities like private spaces, and even spa-like features to provide a relaxing and refreshing atmosphere before or after activities like workouts or swimming.

The members of the Royal Klang Club (RKC) can soon experience such comforts too as a RM1.5mil project has been proposed and approved at its premises.

The plan is to upgrade the washroom facilities, including replacing the flooring, tiling, ceiling, lighting and general plumbing repairs in the bathrooms located at The Lagoon and Multi-Purpose Hall building.

Another area that will be looked into is the Club's infrastructure, like the roofing near The Lagoon.

Most have used the toilet facilities at the Club and there have been countless questions on the lack of facilities or other problems.

Those often highlighted include low water pressure, insufficient hot water (suddenly turning from hot to cold), and a not so comfortable powder room.

All these will be addressed with the upcoming upgrading project.

At the RKC, the last major refurbishment of the toilet facilities at the Multi-Purpose Hall was in 2005 and at The Lagoon in 2007.

THE PROJECT

The foremost consideration for the upgrading and refurbishment of the facilities is to ensure enough cold water and hot water supply, and that the water storage heater is enough for usage at the facilities.

The sub-committee has proposed a dedicated water pipeline to channel cold water to two pressed steel tanks to cater to the toilets at the Multi-Purpose Hall and The Lagoon.

A storage water heater is also to be installed at each bath cubicle to minimise breakdown.

This way, if any one storage heater is faulty, only that particular bath cubicle is affected, not the rest.

Currently, at The Lagoon and Multi-Purpose Hall, there are only two storage water heaters to serve each facility.

In the event one breaks down, a section of the baths will not get enough hot water supply.

As the Multi-Purpose Hall toilets, both for male and female, are in a dilapidated condition, the plan involves a total reconstruction of the facilities.

REFRESHING SHOWER, BATH FACILITIES IN PIPELINE

The works include relocating the toilets for male patrons to the first floor of the Multi-Purpose Hall where the billiard and snooker room area there will be used with to provide more space. This expanded facility will have 10 baths compared with six now, three wash closets compared with two now and five urinals compared with the existing two.

Additionally, a new sauna to accommodate 10 individuals is proposed.

With this change, the current male toilet area will be converted for use by female patrons, consisting of five baths, three wash closets, four basins with a hair dryer each, a large mirror in the powder room and a sauna as well as a steam bath room with a capacity to fit six users.

Currently, there are only two baths and two wash closets.

The female members have voiced out that the sauna is not well utilised due to its dehydrating effects and that a steam bath is a better option. Hence the plan to include the latter.

At The Lagoon, the male toilets will comprise five baths, three wash closets and a toilet for the disabled complete with the necessary features.

For the women, there will be five baths, three wash closets, three basins with hairdryers each, a powder room with a large mirror and a disabled-friendly toilet.

The project sub-committee is also looking into providing lockers, rail hangers, benches and other items to enhance the facilities and provide comfort to users.

Sim, a building engineer, who is also the sub-committee project chairman, said the main focus is to be prudent with the allocated funds while ensuring the works carried out benefit the members.

Sim, a Club member, said the upgrades, user-friendly aspects and overall comfort of patrons were important factors for a Club with RKC's standing.

He said the roofing at The Lagoon area will also be looked into and, if necessary, replaced.

"The building was put up in the 1980s and while refurbishing, it will be good to look into the roof condition as well."

On the project status, Sim said the sub-committee has appointed an external party to carry out due diligence before awarding the contract. The external party will prepare the tender documents.

He said the external party will ensure those submitting tenders for the project were of equal standing, in terms of quality and costing.

The project, once awarded, is expected to be completed in nine months.

CONGRATULATORY MESSAGES FROM RKC PAST PRESIDENTS

As we are preparing to celebrate the 125th Year of the formation of our Club, it must be remembered that the previous grand celebration in the Club was in the year 2001—The Centenary Celebrations of the Royal Klang Club.

For a couple of months then, we had all kinds of sports and social events which finally culminated in a Grand Gala Dinner at the Concorde Hotel in Shah Alam.

Our guest of honour was the YDPA, the Late Sultan Abdul Aziz Shah, the Royal Patron of our Club. Also, present was the Raja Permaisuri Agong, Puan Besar Siti Aishah, the Raja Muda of Selangor Tunku Idris Shah and a host of government dignitaries from Selangor.

Now, after almost 25 years, we are proud to announce that the Club has progressed by leaps and bounds. The Past Presidents and the Present President have enhanced the facilities and amenities in the Club for the benefit of all members. All sports facilities have been upgraded and the sports fraternity are having a whale of a time.

The F&B outlets have been upgraded to a classy environment. The admin office and the Reading rooms are presentable and accommodating and the Poolside looks like a holiday resort.

The RKC is one of the best, if not the best Members' Club for Sports and Recreation in Selangor. We are also positioned nicely in the Istana enclave in this Royal City.

In light of the above, we urge members to be proud of their membership and carry themselves with dignity and decorum at all times.

MR R. NAGESWARAN PJK, JP
Past President
Royal Klang Club, Klang

It gives me immense pride and joy to join the Royal Klang Club family in celebrating a truly remarkable milestone—125 years of fellowship, heritage, and service to the Klang community.

From its modest beginnings in the late 19th century as a gathering place for planters and traders along the royal town's riverbanks, the Royal Klang Club has evolved into one of Malaysia's most enduring and respected social institutions. Through colonial transitions, independence, and rapid modernisation, our Club has remained steadfast in its purpose—to foster friendship, camaraderie, and a shared spirit of belonging among its members.

I have had the honour of witnessing and contributing to part of this journey during my tenure as President. What has always stood out for me is the Club's remarkable ability to blend tradition with progress—honouring our proud past while embracing change to remain relevant for generations to come.

As we commemorate 125 years, let us renew our commitment to the values that built this great institution: unity, respect, and service. May the Royal Klang Club continue to stand as a beacon of friendship and community spirit in the heart of Klang for another century and beyond.

Congratulations to the General Committee and all members on this historic occasion.

I am thrilled to take a moment to share my fond memories of the RKC. It was just over 30 years ago, on a sunny Saturday afternoon in 1995, when I first walked through those welcoming doors. I was warmly hosted by friends and colleagues like Terrence Simon, Dr. Roy, and Rajasekharan Nair, who introduced me to an amazing group of new friends, including Billy Singh and Kim Long.

Those days transformed my commute from Shah Alam to Klang into something I looked forward to, and some of the best gentlemen I know today were met during those precious Saturday gatherings.

During my formative years in Klang, the Royal Klang Club was a significant part of my journey. While it might be a stretch to say the Club shaped who I am today, I can certainly attest to the invaluable impact it had on my life. I always have a special place for RKC in my heart. Celebrating 125 years is not just about a number. It is a monumental milestone that speaks volumes about the enduring love and commitment of the members.

This achievement would not have been possible without the dedication of both present members and those who have left us. Over the past century and a quarter, RKC has connected individuals and built a family united by shared values and experiences.

On behalf of the Royal Selangor Club General Committee and our members, I would like to extend my Congratulations to all members of RKC for this achievement. Here is to friendship, community, and many more memorable years!

Warmest wishes,

A SIGNIFICANT MILESTONE AS RKC TURNS 125

Our editor, S. Jayakrishnan, met up with K. Thavanesan, chairman of the Royal Klang Club's 125th Anniversary Celebration Organising Committee, to get an update on what the Club has lined up to mark this historic occasion.

The Royal Klang Club (RKC) celebrates a remarkable milestone next year — its 125th anniversary — a proud testament to the enduring legacy of Selangor's premier social and recreational institution.

This significant occasion marks not only another chapter in the Club's rich history but also a celebration of its community spirit. The organising committee has planned a series of exciting programmes and activities that will involve members, their families, the corporate sector, and the wider community.

K. Thavanesan, fondly known as Thava, a long-standing member since 1990, is leading the organising committee. He says the celebrations, beginning in March 2025, will focus strongly on sports — a fitting tribute to the Club's proud heritage.

"We are a renowned sports club not just in Selangor but throughout Malaysia, having produced many outstanding athletes, including Olympians," says Thava. "Sports will therefore be at the heart of our anniversary celebrations, which will kick off in October next year."

RKC plans to host a series of inter-club games with its affiliated clubs nationwide, including the Royal Selangor Club, Royal Sungai Ujong Club, Melaka Club, Royal Ipoh Club, Penang Sports Club, Royal Lake Club, and Selangor Coast Club.

The sporting events will feature a wide range of games such as hockey, cricket, football, table tennis, pickleball, tennis, badminton, darts, snooker, and pool. Matches will be held at RKC's own facilities as well as external venues including Bayumas Oval for cricket, the Pandamaran AstroTurf hockey field, Sultan Sulaiman Stadium for football, and other nearby sports arenas.

“Beyond the competitions, we’re expecting enthusiastic support from families, friends, and guests,” says Thava. “The goal is to create a festive atmosphere that everyone can enjoy.”

No stranger to major RKC events, Thava previously served two terms on the General Committee and played a key role during the Club’s Centennial Anniversary in 2001. He notes that the response from members, the corporate sector, and the Klang community has been very encouraging. To build excitement, a special anniversary logo featuring the tagline “Embracing A New Horizon” has been launched, with commemorative merchandise — including T-shirts, caps, mugs, and other collectibles — in the works.

“These items will make wonderful keepsakes,” says Thava. “Some will be limited editions, and we expect strong demand from members eager to own a piece of RKC history.”

The celebrations will culminate in a grand gala dinner in October 2026, with 15 tables reserved for corporate sponsors. “We’re confident of a strong turnout. It will be a memorable night not only for RKC but for the entire Klang community,” Thava adds.

A comedy skit highlighting RKC’s colourful history is also being planned for the dinner. The committee invites members with creative flair and stage presence to take part. “RKC is home to many talented individuals,” says Thava.

“We’d love to showcase their abilities in a performance that our guests will remember for years to come.” On the sponsorship front, two major beverage companies have already expressed keen interest in coming on board, while several other corporate and community partners are expected to join in the celebrations.

To encourage participation across all age groups, the committee is also planning a Family Day and Fun Walk, reinforcing RKC’s reputation as a family-friendly Club. “We want everyone — especially children — to feel included. This is, after all, a celebration for all,” Thava emphasises.

He also took the opportunity to thank past RKC presidents and General Committee members for their continued support and contributions. "Their willingness to help is deeply appreciated. The strong bond between the GC, members, staff, and community is what makes RKC such a special place," he says.

As part of the Club's commitment to its staff, the committee is exploring the idea of allocating a portion of proceeds from the anniversary celebrations towards a staff retirement fund — a gesture to acknowledge their years of loyal service.

To preserve the Club's history for future generations, a time capsule project is also being planned. It will include artefacts and archival documents tracing RKC's evolution from its early colonial days to its present status as a distinguished royal club. The time capsule is expected to be opened 25 years from now, during RKC's 150th anniversary. Reflecting on his lifelong ties to both Klang and the Club, Thava expresses deep pride in how far both have come.

Their willingness to help is deeply appreciated. The strong bond between the GC, members, staff, and community is what makes RKC such a special place.

"We've come a long way. The 125th anniversary celebrates not just our legacy and transformation, but also our steadfast spirit in embracing new horizons," he says.

"As we embark on this new chapter, our celebrations reaffirm our roots and the lasting ties that bind us to the royal city and our nation."

ROYAL KLANG CLUB

ART AS THERAPY

My passion and love for the arts go a long way back, tracing to my early childhood. I have always found immense joy in drawing and painting, as art has a calming and relaxing effect on me.

Art is not merely an object for aesthetic appreciation—it is a powerful resource for psychological well-being. It holds immense potential to address our emotional and mental needs. Truly, art can be profoundly therapeutic.

There was a time in my life when I realised this truth more deeply than ever before. Art quite literally saved my life. In moments of personal struggle and emotional turmoil, when words failed me, painting became my refuge. It offered me a way to release, to heal, and to rediscover myself.

Through every brushstroke, I found calm in the chaos, clarity in confusion, and meaning in moments of despair. That experience transformed my understanding of what art truly is—it is not just creation, it is connection and recovery.

It was also during my travels with my husband that painting became my best companion. Art provides a mirror to our innermost feelings and thoughts, often expressing what we struggle to articulate in words.

This therapeutic engagement with art nurtures greater self-awareness and emotional clarity. In helping us identify and process complex emotions, art becomes a vital tool for personal growth and transformation.

Today, I have the joy of sharing this experience with others through teaching. I have been teaching children for many years, and it fills me with pride and happiness to see their faces light up as they express themselves through colours and shapes.

More recently, I have expanded my classes to include senior citizens—a journey that has been equally rewarding. For them, art is not just about painting; it's about connection—with the colours, their memories, with one another, and most importantly, with themselves.

Art plays a vital role in supporting fine motor skills, stimulating cognitive development, and bringing genuine happiness.

ART has the remarkable ability to balance our EMOTIONS and FOSTER SELF-UNDERSTANDING.

Creative care for the aged goes far beyond the act of painting; it is about the emotional resonance and meaningful engagement they experience through art. It's heartwarming to witness how a simple painting session can spark laughter, conversation, and renewed confidence.

One of the most compelling benefits of art therapy is its ability to elevate self-esteem and self-awareness. Using a variety of mediums and techniques, individuals are able to channel their emotions into their work, often discovering parts of themselves they had forgotten or never fully understood. This process fosters confidence, acceptance, and joy—reminding us that creativity knows no age limit.

Art has the remarkable ability to balance our emotions and foster self-understanding. Through creative expression, individuals can discover inner strength and harmony, cultivating a deeper appreciation for life.

The practical applications of art in our daily lives are countless. Whether through visiting museums, engaging in creative hobbies, or simply noticing beauty in our surroundings, the integration of art into everyday routines nurtures mindfulness and enhances overall quality of life.

Art encourages us to see the world through a more nuanced and appreciative lens, transforming ordinary moments into opportunities for aesthetic and emotional enrichment.

"Only art penetrates the seeming realities of this world," Saul Bellow once said in his Nobel Prize Acceptance Speech. I witness this magic each time someone becomes transported to a different world while immersed in art. Art is pure joy. It possesses a profound healing power that plays a crucial role in our emotional and psychological lives.

When we engage with art through the lens of therapy, we unlock its full potential as a tool for self-discovery and emotional well-being.

We should not embrace art solely as a form of entertainment or intellectual pursuit, but as a vital element of a healthy, balanced, and fulfilling life. The transformative power of art is a beacon of hope and resilience—a pathway through which both individuals and society can find solace, understanding, and inspiration.

My heart sings when I paint. It lifts my spirit when I share this joy with others—when I see a smile light up someone's face as they view my work, or when a proud child shows their "masterpiece" to their parents after class. I wish for everyone to experience this joy—to use art as therapy for self-development, healing, and growth.

SHOWCASING RKC'S 125TH ANNIVERSARY VIA ART

BY MR. M. ANIL MENON

In conjunction with the Royal Klang Club's 125th Anniversary, the RKC Art Competition was organised to celebrate the Club's heritage and community spirit through art. Entries were judged on creativity, originality, theme interpretation, and presentation.

The judges were impressed by the quality and imagination of the many hand-drawn artworks, especially from children. Attractive cash prizes helped boost participation, with selected winning entries also considered for the 125th Anniversary commemorative merchandise.

The judging panel comprised Ms Priya Gopi, a practising artist with international exposure and a strong focus on art in education, and Eddie Lim, a veteran creative professional, educator, and life member of the National Art Gallery. Their combined experience ensured a fair and thoughtful selection process. (Detailed profiles of the judges were previously featured in the Club Bulletin.)

The Category B (Adults) first prize was awarded to Keenan Khy Vern Ravindran. It was selected as the cover artwork for this commemorative magazine.

The artwork captures the vibrancy of RKC through a dynamic composition featuring sports, leisure, entertainment, and fellowship, reflecting the Club's lively and inclusive spirit.

The Category A (Children) first prize was won by Ng Sue Wei. It is featured in full on the following page. Using a symbolic, puzzle-style composition, the artwork represents how RKC's heritage, unity, and traditions come together as one.

In her own words, the piece celebrates the Club's journey "from its founding in 1901 to the present day, while looking forward to a vibrant future."

The prize-giving ceremony was held at the Sports Tavern, attended by members and families. The event was witnessed by a member of the judging panel, Ms Priya Gopi, and RKC Vice-President Mr. Serjeet Singh, who presented prizes and tokens of appreciation to the participants.

The Royal Klang Club extends its sincere appreciation to the President, Vice-President, and General Committee for their strong support, including the provision of attractive cash prizes that encouraged participation.

The Club also thanks the judges for their time and expertise. This Art Competition was organised by the Publications Sub-Committee, whose members are proud to have contributed to this meaningful celebration of creativity, community, and 125 years of RKC history.

PICKLEBALL IS ALL THE RAVE AT RKC

BY MR. M. ANIL MENON

When Sasi Nair took over as Pickleball Captain at RKC, he wasn't chasing a title—he was answering a calling. What began as a shared interest with his wife Padmini soon became a passion project.

"I wanted her to enjoy the Club more, and pickleball gave us that chance together," said Sasi.

The captaincy was first suggested by RKC's Vice-President, but Sasi initially hesitated. He eventually stepped forward after giving it deep thought and recognising the sport's growing presence. "It felt like the right time to give back," he said.

From day one, Sasi's goal was simple: get more members, especially seniors, onto the court. Many older members had ruled themselves out of sports—but pickleball was different. "It's not a high-skill or high-impact game. Anyone can play it."

He jokingly added, "If you can swat a fly, you can play pickleball."

That easygoing tone is part of what's made the sport so popular at RKC. Today, the section is the fastest-growing one in the Club, now nearing 200 members.

A big reason for the boom is the familyfriendly approach. "We encourage spouses and children to join in. It's fun and inclusive," said Sasi.

New members are even joining RKC just to play on Club's resurfaced courts. To manage the surge in participation, Sasi introduced a paddle stacking system. It's a fair rotation where players take turns in sequence—no queue jumping. "It ensures everyone gets a shot."

The section now runs three sessions daily to cater to all lifestyles. Morning for retirees, evening for semi-retirees and late night for competitive younger players. This structure has made it easier for everyone to find their rhythm.

RKC's recent resurfacing and repainting of all three courts boosted morale significantly. Bitumen flooring is gentler on joints, making the game even more accessible. "Frankly, our courts are far better than most commercially run venues out there," Sasi noted.

Support from the Club's Vice-President and Sports Chairman Mr. Serjeet Singh and President Mr. Kenny Lee has been unwavering.

"They've been fantastic," said Sasi. "Their belief in our vision has made all the difference." Club courts now see action morning and night—something rare until recently.

The section has also completed three training modules under IPTPA-certified coach Edward Chan.

They have laid a strong foundation for both new and seasoned players.

WHAT WE'VE BUILT HERE ISN'T JUST A SPORTS GROUP-IT IS A COMMUNITY

"Our members are really engaged—these sessions have cleared up so much confusion," said Sasi.

Exciting times lie ahead. A championship is set for July, followed by inter-club games in August. And in 2026, RKC will host a special Interclub Event to celebrate its 125th Anniversary. Five Clubs will join the event, including Royal Selangor Club and Penang Sports Club.

"Many are looking forward to it. It will be a showcase of sportsmanship and celebration," said Sasi. As the host, RKC plans to make the event memorable, blending competitive play with camaraderie. "We hope all members come out to show their support and Club spirit." Helping him steer the section is his wife, Padmini.

A seasoned athlete, she brings a wealth of experience from badminton, squash, netball, and athletics. She has also led sporting events as a Secretary and acting Chairlady in other Clubs.

"Involvement in sports is second nature to me," said Padmini.

"Being part of the RKC Pickleball section allows me to support Sasi while doing something I love." Together, the couple creates an energetic, organised, and welcoming environment.

Padmini and Sasi also shared that their love for sports runs deep—even within their family. Over the years, they have organised friendly tournaments among relatives, complete with trophies and medals. This deep-rooted sporting spirit that they now channel into building a vibrant pickleball community at RKC.

Asked to sum up the section in one phrase, Sasi didn't hesitate: "Club Spirit."

"Because what we've built here isn't just a sports group—it is a community."

One that reflects RKC's enduring legacy as it celebrates its 125th year

PICKLEBALL – THE CAPTAIN'S REFLECTION

Finally, we have done it all!

With God's grace and blessing, we have progressed from where we started on December 17, 2023.

On this day, Tan Wei Chan, Yap Phang Hee and I played pickleball in RKC tennis court B at 9am for the first time. In a short period of time, nine months or so, we have accomplished much beyond everybody's expectation.

It's good to see members from every sport section in RKC trying out pickleball as well as those do not play any sports at all, finally playing pickleball.

It is gratifying to now to be able to see, every morning and evening, members playing pickleball. Pickleball is uniting members from all sections, age and gender.

And as I watch from the Sports Tavern, with a glass of gin and tonic, I vividly recall

1. The efforts in drawing the lines and the setting up of the portable nets. We can proudly say we now have at least three courts at our disposal,
2. Helping our members to acquire good quality and affordable prices paddles from a local supplier, Mr. Farrel Choo, the owner of Odysportz, and also the President of Malaysia Pickleball Association,

3. Getting Mercedes through the good office of Mr. Goh Eng Hooi to sponsor our own Pickleball t-shirt,

PICKLEBALL BRINGS YOUNG AND SENIORS OUT ON COURT

4. Organising the soft launching ceremony which had a huge turnout,
5. Coordinating the 1st Pickleball Social game, where the large turnout of members had so much fun,
6. We did our social responsibility to promote pickleball to the Klang community (a group of insurance agents) by using the Setia Alam facilities as Klang does not have any public courts.
7. We were invited to promote Pickleball to the senior citizens in Klang at the Taman Rakyat where YB Hannah Yeoh was present thanks to Mr. Farrel Choo,
8. We were also invited by Selangor Pickleball Association President, Mr. Ted Thor to PJ Club for a senior citizen pickleball day where the NSTReporter did an article on us in the newspaper and social media.
9. Organising a friendly game with SELPA players in Dinkit, Kota Kemuning.
10. Organising our first Pickleball Championship with great success.
11. Arranging a small group to Miri to play at the Gymkhana Sports Club, where pickleball was first started in Malaysia.
12. Finally, closing with the Championship and 2nd Social Game with a combined dinner and prize presentation.

RIISING STARS OF RKC SQUASH

Interviews by Mr. Billy Ng and
Mr. S. Kulaseharan

RKC has long had a tradition of producing squash champions, with a strong pool of talented youngsters eager to make their mark on the game.

Some have gone on to represent the Club at state, national, and international tournaments. With dedicated coaches, excellent facilities, and a growing enthusiasm for the sport, squash is fast becoming one of the premier recreational and competitive sections at RKC.

Among the current crop of rising stars are Niew Chew and Julius Tan, two juniors who have flourished through the Club's Junior Development Programme.

Their journeys and achievements were recently featured in exclusive interviews conducted by Mr. Billy Ng and Mr. S. Kulaseharan for the RKC 125th Anniversary Magazine.

Niew Chew, 14, began playing squash at the age of eight, originally just to challenge her dad on court.

What began as fun soon grew into a deep passion. Guided by her motto "Train hard and focus," she has captured numerous titles across age categories, including the National Junior Circuit, Selangor State Closed, MSSS and MSSM tournaments, K.L. Junior Open, and Borneo Junior Open.

Niew credits her success to her parents' support and the Club's structured training environment. "The coaches and training helped me improve not just my game but also my discipline and confidence," she shared.

She appreciates the camaraderie among young players and the excellent facilities that make RKC a true home for squash enthusiasts.

Julius Tan, 13, has been playing squash since the age of six, inspired by his older brother, Jaden.

NIEW CHEW

A student at SMJK Chunghwa, Julius trains several evenings a week with remarkable discipline and focus.

In 2024, he finished third at the Asian Junior Individual Squash Championship in Islamabad and also placed at the Bangkok Southeast Asia Junior Championship. Known for his precise frontcourt drops and strategic play, Julius continues to refine his backhand and fitness through regular training.

Ambitious and grounded, Julius dreams of competing in the British Junior Open and eventually representing Malaysia at the professional level.

"I want to keep improving and test myself against the best in the world," he said confidently, a sentiment that reflects the determination and spirit shared by many of RKC's young athletes.

The Club's squash section continues to thrive with guidance from Coach Teh and Coach Khai Zen, who oversee the junior and advanced training programmes.

The recently refurbished courts with new flooring have further enhanced the playing experience, attracting more members to train regularly.

With limited squash facilities in Klang, RKC's courts remain among the busiest in town, buzzing with activity almost every evening.

With continued investment in coaching, facilities, youth programmes and passionate players like Niew and Julius leading the next generation, the future of squash at RKC looks brighter than ever.
